Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick

From Saturday, AUGUST 25, to Saturday, SEPTEMBER 1, 1733.

BOSTON, June 7.

His Excellency's SPEECH to the new Aſſembly now ſitting here.

Gentlemen of the Council and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

IT is a Satisfaction to me at this Time to meet you in General Aſſembly.

Diſpatch in the publick Affairs of the Province, is what you ſhould always have in View, and the neceſſary Supply of the Treaſury challenges your earlieſt Care.

In Obedience to his Majeſty I muſt inform you, he ſtill expects that you make Proviſion for the Support of his Governor, according to his Royal Inſtruction lying with you.

I have nothing more to recommend to you, but that all your Proceedings in this Seſſion may diſcover your Duty and Loyalty to the King, and convince the World, that you are conſtantly governed by a real Love to your Country.

Your acting conformable to theſe Principles is of abſolute Neceſſity for eſtabliſhing the true Welfare of this People.

May 31, 1733. J. Belcher.

Extract from the Votes of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, June 1.

The Houſe entred into the Conſideration of that Part of his Excellency's Speech relating to the Supply of the Treaſury, and after a Debate thereon, on a Motion made and ſeconded, Voted, That the Houſe at 3 a Clock this Afternoon will take into Conſideration the Affair of ſupplying the Treaſury.

P. M. According to the Order of the Forenoon the Houſe entred into the Conſideration of the Supply of the Treaſury, and after a conſiderable Time ſpent in debating on that Affair, the Houſe voted that a Bill be prepared for the Supply of the Treaſury, agreeable to the Bill paſſed for that Purpoſe in June laſt.

Mercurii Die 6 Jun. P. M. According to the Order of Yeſterday, the Houſe entred into the Conſideration of that part of his Excellency's Speech, which relates to his Support, and after ſome Debate, the Queſtion was put, Whether the Houſe will come into the ſettling a Salary on the Governor according to the Inſtruction referred to in his Excellency's Speech? It paſſed in the Negative, Nemine Contradicente,

And afterwards on a further Debate, the Queſtion was put, Whether the Houſe at this Time will prepare the Draft of a Bill for his Excellency's Support, agreeable to the Act paſt laſt Year for that Purpoſe? It paſſed in the Negative.

A Bill entituled, An Act for Supplying the Treaſury with the Sum of 70,000 l. Read a third Time, and paſſed to be engroſſed.

Jovis Die 14 Junii.

A Meſſage from his Excellency the Governor by Mr. Secretary, viz.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

YOU are ſenſible that as often as you have attempted a Supply of the Treaſury according to the Tenor of the Bill you have now paſſed, ſo often have I refuſed to ſign it; and to prevent your loſing any more time in this neceſſary Buſineſs, I think it proper once more to declare to you, that I ſhall not give my aſſent to any Bill projected in this Manner.

June 14, 1733. J. Belcher.

Ordered, That this Houſe at 3 o' Clock this Afternoon will enter into the Conſideration of the Affair of the Supply of the Treaſury.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

NAPLES, March 24.

WE hear from Calabria, that the Territory of Caſa Nova ſunk 20 Feet deep into the Earth, without throwing down a Houſe. The Inhabitants having Notice by a prodigious Noiſe in the Air preceding the Accident ſome Minutes, happily eſcaped into the Fields, and only 5 Perſons had the Misfortune to be kill'd.

Milan, Mar. 18. We have a current Report, that the Court of Spain demands of the Emperor the Reſtitution of Rocca-Guilelma in the Kingdom of Naples, which is reckoned a Fund of 260,000 Crowns.

Paris, May 1[illegible]. N. S. On Monday about 5 o' Clock in the Evening, the Queen was ſafely delivered of a Princeſs.

LONDON, April 24.

On Sunday the Rt. Rev. the Ld. Biſhop of Salisbury ordained three Deacons at the Chapel in King-ſtreet near Golden Square; one of whom was the only Son of the Rev. Dr. Clark, Dean of Salisbury, another the Son of the Rev. Mr. Mayo, an eminent Diſſenting Miniſter of this City.

April 12. We hear that the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council, &c. made ſo fine and powerful Addreſſes to the Houſe of Commons on Tueſday laſt, by Petition and Remonſtrance againſt the intended Exciſe-Bill on Tobacco, that they have been pleaſed to put off the farther reading of it to Tueſday June 12. And laſt Night there was ringing of Bells, Bonfires, and other Demonſtrations of Joy throughout this City, upon that Occaſion. At Temple-bar the Populace had the Aſſurance to burn a large Figure ſtuffed with Straw, with a blue Paper a-croſs his Shoulder reſembling a Garter, & white Paper ſtuck on his Coat to imitate a Star: They did the like in King-ſtreet, Guildhall, alſo in Biſhopſgate-ſtreet, and in other Places; and the Mob were ſo riotous, that they broke the Windows of ſeveral Houſes that were not illuminated.

Laſt Night about ſeven, ſeveral Perſons were ſeized for inſulting Sir Rob. Walpole, as he paſſed through the Court of Requeſts, but were diſcharged. Mr. Joſeph Kells, Owner of a Ship, living at Woodbridge in Suffolk, was ſeized, and being carried to the Crown Tavern in New Palace-yard, where the the Juſtices were aſſembled in a petty Seſſions, he was bound over to appear at the King's-bench Bar the laſt Day of the Term, in a Recognizance of 500 l. He is a Gentleman of Fortune and Character, and was ſeized by ſeveral Juſtices of the Peace, who were preſent, with a great Number of Conſtables, to prevent Riots, being accuſed of hiſſing at Sir Robert, and raiſing a Riot.

The Lord Chief Baron Reynolds is declared Lord Ch. Juſtice of the King's-bench.

Laſt Night died in Red-croſs-ſtreet, Mr. Samuel Wilcox, an eminent diſſenting Miniſter, Preacher at the Meeting in Mugwel Street. He was well at nine; but juſt as he was going to Bed, being taken with a Pain at the Heart, took a Cordial, and died immediately.

This Day there was a private Call of Serjeants, when Mr. Juſtice Reeve, and Mr. Wright of the inner Temple were called to the Bar of the Court of Common Pleas, to take upon them the Degree of Serjeants at Law; at the ſame time Mr. Juſtice Reeve was ſworn into the Office of Judge of the ſaid Court, in the Room of Mr. Juſtice Price, Deceaſed. The four Law Courts are to be removed from Weſtminſter-hall into a more commodious Place, intended to be raiſed in Fiſh-yard, contiguous to the ſaid Hall.

They write from Bagborough in Somerſetſhire, that on Tueſday laſt was buried from that Place at Lydiard St. Laurence, Mrs. Jane Keene, a maiden Gentlewoman, aged 92. She ordered by Will four Men (each near forty, who had never kiſs'd a Woman) for her Bearers; three Violens, and other Inſtruments of Muſick, were to play all the Way before her to the Pariſh Church where ſhe was buried, which was at leaſt a Mile and half; ſhe gave large Directions for Victuals and Drink, and no one was to wear mourning, or ſhew the leaſt Concern; her Corpſe was attended by at leaſt 4000 People, who ſeemed punctually to obſerve the latter Part of her Will; and the Bells of both Pariſhes rang all the Day: She once deſign'd ſix Virgins ſhould dance round her Grave: The Corps was reſted on a large Common, half way between the two Pariſhes, & thoſe Pſalms ſung and play'd by the Muſick which were afterwards performed in the ſame Manner in the Church. She died poſſeſſed of a plentiful Fortune, which ſhe left to her poor Relations.

April 16. They write from Briſtol, Coventry, Nottingham, and Sarum, that the Expreſſions of their Joy at receiving the News, that the Exciſe Bill was poſtponed, were very extraordinary. At Briſtol the News arrived at 11 on Thurſday Night, & the Bells began to ring on Friday Morning, and continued all that Day, and Evening. The Merchants were ſo eager to communicate the News, that there was knocking at Doors, and viſiting all Night long, and the Coffee-houſes and Streets were as full of People as at Noon Day. Large Bonfires were lighted throughout the City and Suburbs, and large Barrels of Ale given to the Populace. At the Bonfire before the Exciſe-Office, an Effigie was burnt by the Mob, as was another in that of Queen-Square.

April 18. Yeſterday at a General Court of the S. S. Company, a Petition to the Parliament for converting 3 fourths of the Capital Stock into redeemable Annuities at 4 per Cent. was unanimouſly agreed to, and the other fourth to be a trading Stock.

The 9th Day of June is fixed for the Court's removing to Hampton Court, and Aug. 1. to Windſor, in which Month the Prince of Orange will be inſtalled Knight of the Garter, he being to have the late Earl of Pembroke's blue Garter.

May 7. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Rt. Hon. George Earl of Moreton, Vice-Admiral of Scotland, in the Room of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Stair, to which place a Salary of 2000 l. is annexed.

On Friday Night, the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Burlington, went to Court, and reſigned his Gold Staff, as Captain of the Band of Gentlemen Penſioners, together with his other Places. We hear that the Counteſs hath alſo reſigned her Place of Lady of the Bedchamber to her Majeſty.

Yeſterday the Governors and Directors of the Bank of England, and thoſe alſo of the Eaſt-India, and South-Sea Companies, preſented a Petition to the Houſe of Lords againſt the Stock-jobbing Bill now depending there.

The Corporation of Stamford have ſent a Letter of Thanks to their Repreſentatives in Parliament, for oppoſing the Exciſe-Bill.

Laſt Night died at Whitehall the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, and is ſucceeded by his eldeſt Son, George Lord Viſcount Malpas.

Aylesbury, May 5. This Day a great Fire conſumed here in a little time, above 30 Houſes, beſides Ricks of Corn, Barns and Out-houſes.

Yeſterday the Rt. Hon. Alexander Hume, Earl of Marchmont, reſigned his Place of Lord Clerk Regiſter of Scotland.
